

Vacancy information

Role:	Sustainability Apprentice
Number of vacancies:	1
Full Employer / Company Name:	Nuclear Waste Services
Email Address:	LLWR.TrainingDepartment@llwrsite.com
Employer Address:	Pelham House Pelham Drive Calder Bridge Cumbria
	Post code: CA20 1DB
Employer website:	About us - Nuclear Waste Services - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)
Number of employees:	900
About the employer:	As of the 31 January 2022, Nuclear Waste Services has been set up to combine all of the NDA Waste activities, giving greater flexibility and driving improvements and synergies across the NDA Group. This brings together LLW Repository Limited, Radioactive Waste Management Limited and the NDA Integrated Waste Management Programme (each with their own IT teams, infrastructure, and systems).
Apprenticeship/ Qualification title:	Corporate Responsibility & Sustainability Practitioner
Standard or Framework:	ST0934
Apprenticeship Level:	Level 4
Location of the vacancy: (Please state if the vacancy is at the main employer address or at a different location)	Pelham House, Calderbridge – Occasional remote working
Please confirm – that 50% of the learners work time will be in England	Yes
Brief overview of the apprenticeship vacancy:	The role will sit in the NWS Sustainability team, which is part of the Corporate Strategy function. The broad purpose of the Sustainability team is to be a social conscience for the organisation,

	helping innovate and drive ambitions for social and environmental change and make these a reality that are embedded and implemented across the organisation. The team's responsibilities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development and implementation of sustainability strategy, covering social, economic and environmental issues • Working with teams within NWS, stakeholders across the NDA group and wider nuclear industry to promote a coordinated approach to sustainable waste management • Engagement and communications to embed sustainability in our organisational culture. A Sustainability practitioner will typically be working on multiple initiatives covering a variety of geographies, focus areas, and stakeholders. For example, communities, waste management, energy, carbon reduction, equality and supply chains. The programme will include a variety of placements and projects that enable the apprentice to gain a broad experience of different aspects of sustainability, including: Strategy, Environment, Social Impact, Community Engagement, Stakeholder Engagement, Communications, HR. This is a varied role, which will offer exposure to all aspects of how the organisation works and the chance to develop connections with a wide range of stakeholders within NWS and beyond.
Skills & Personal Qualities required:	The role would suit someone who is motivated by social or environmental issues, with a flexible, people-focused outlook and communication skills. Person: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passionate about sustainability • Curious, open-minded and willing to learn • Enthusiastic and proactive Skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Confident communicator

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Critical thinker • Interpersonal skills – collaboration and relationship building
Minimum criteria (e.g., GCSE grades):	Typically, candidates will have achieved grade C or above in at least five GCSE's including English, Maths and a Science subject.
Future prospects: (Please provide any details of future prospects such as progression onto further qualifications or promotion within work)	We can offer significant CPD opportunities during the programme, including getting involved in NDA Group and industry-wide sustainability initiatives and working groups, national and international opportunities, and learning and development. We are supportive of professional memberships and subscriptions. Upon successful completion of the apprenticeship, it could lead to potential job opportunities within NWS.
Working Week: (For example; Monday – Friday, 9am – 5pm)	Monday – Friday 08.10 – 16.20
Paid hours per week: (For example; 37.5 hours per week)	37hrs
Interview date(s):	February/March 2024
Proposed Start Date:	September 2024